

AUTHOR VISIT

Meet Stephanie Nina Pitsirilos

Delve deep into the works of author Stephanie Nina Pitsirilos with an author visit, in-person or remote. Discussions can be tailored to classrooms/book clubs and audiences and related works. Past lectures and guest appearances include:

HIGHLIGHTS

Watch out for wormholes: Anchored Pasts and Dynamic Duos in Graphic Storytelling.

How we write & draw personal, collective & colonized histories in narratives of present and future. How to create effective comic creator partnerships.

First presented at Cornell College, Iowa in April 2023.
Download the pdf.

Remote and in-person.

#literaryfiction #comicbookrealism #speculativefiction #comics #romance #latinxfuturism
#nuyorico #zines #historicalfiction #womenfiction #sexuality #scifi #publichealth

HIGHLIGHTS

All About Love. Venusian themes in writing about the female experience on love, sex, pleasure, beauty, boundaries, renewal and fertility.

Jean, Janus & Comic Book Realism. An exploration of literary craft and labels that exist within, and in defiance of, the eye of an observer. Exploring the 2022 Chautauqua Janus Prize Lecture, NY.

Dig deep into Event Horizon: Stories of No Turning Back. Talk black holes, literary fiction, comics, latinxfuturism, human sexuality and women's fiction. Detailed reader's guide provided for this 2024 "Project We Love" Kickstarter collection.

All about PUB! Crowdfunding, traditional publishing with agents, editors, indie-publishing, anthologies, prose-comics-zines, and imprints. Stephanie has had her foot in all! Shared in numerous panels and podcasts, including New York Comic Con and Kids Comics Unite.

Public Health & Volunteer Pathways. A recorded 40 minute webinar to go with ZINE100 How Not To Be Colonized by Outreach Programs. This webinar walks you through how to get the most out of your funding partnerships! Stephanie wears her zinester and public health hats, fleshes out some of the major concepts behind the zine with some local examples from her public health work. Available here. A live visit can be tailored, including Stephanie's nine years of volunteering as an elementary school "librarian." Stephanie has a MPH in public health from Columbia University.

Customized author visit on any of Stephanie's works and collaborations.

Email stephanie@zoehealth.us for inquiries. Visit www.stephanieninapitsirilos.com for examples of interviews, panels and readings. Stephanie is based in NYC.